

Denver American Indian Festival

Lakewood 2023

The Denver American Indian Festival is a 100% volunteer-run 501(c)3 founded and created by two Adams County, Colorado residents. Since 2014, the Denver American Indian Festival has strived to preserve and promote American Indian culture, arts, and history to the Adams County and Denver Metro communities. It has welcomed over 20,000 residents and over 81 tribal nations. We have grown so much. This year we will be hosting the festival at Lakewood United Methodist Church, 1390 Brentwood St, Denver.

We hope you can join us on September 23rd and September 24th..

We are seeking vendors for this two-day event. If interested go to denveramericanindianfestival.org
